

You may print as many of these as you need for your class or other event.

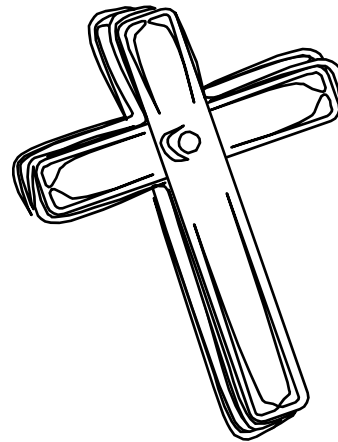

Requests for little books may be sent to gwen@UnitStudiesByGwen.com

Other little books are available by clicking on the "short books" link at www.UnitStudiesByGwen.com

© Gwen Nicodemus, 2008

Easter

by Gwen Nicodemus

This book belongs to:

How do you think you'd feel if you went to a tomb to anoint Jesus' body, like the women did, and found that Jesus was alive and not dead?

The people loved Jesus. They made a path for him out of palm leaves, and put their cloaks on a donkey for him to ride. They sang Hosanna to him.

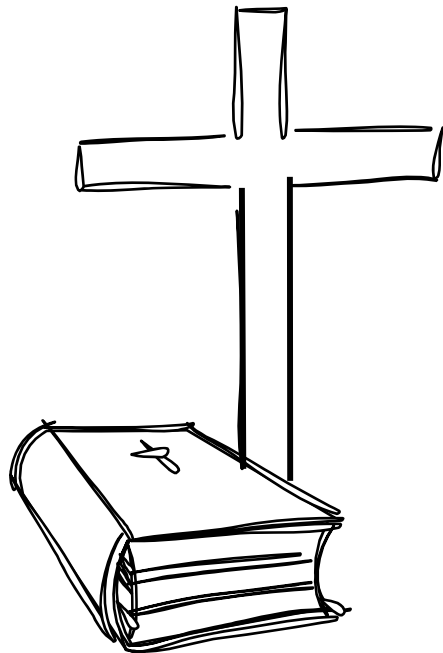

Print double sided. Cut on the red lines. Fold on the dotted lines.

Jesus and his disciples celebrated Passover.

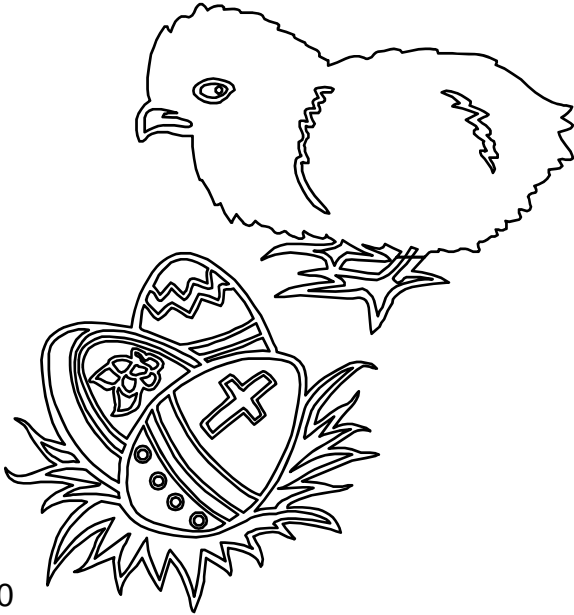

Crosses also represent Easter. Jesus died on a cross because he loved us, so crosses remind us that he did this for us.

Print double sided. Cut on the red lines. Fold on the dotted lines.

Sometimes you see chickens and bunnies at Easter time. Chicks hatch from eggs. The egg symbolizes a new life being born. Jesus rose from the tomb and was alive again.

10

Jesus and his disciples had their last supper together.

3

The women ran to tell the disciples, and everyone was happy.

8

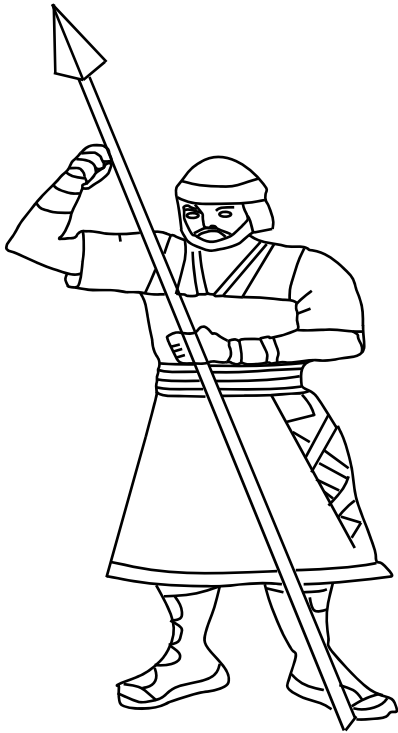

Jesus was crucified and died. He was put in a tomb on Friday with a big stone in front of the tomb to seal it.

5

Print double sided. Cut on the red lines. Fold on the dotted lines.

Judas betrayed Jesus, and he was taken by the Roman soldiers.

4

The lily is a flower we see a lot at Easter time. The lily is beautiful and reminds us that God created everything, performs miracles, and that Jesus rose from the tomb.

9

On Sunday, the women came to anoint Jesus' body. The stone was gone!

6

Two angels by the tomb told the women that Jesus was alive.

7